From the Administrator's Desk....!

“Truly, I say to you: the publicans and the prostitutes are ahead of you on the way to the kingdom of heaven.”

The readings for this Sunday show that Yahweh urges us to reflect His ways with this world’s ways and weigh in carefully which one is the right way. The Gospel appreciates those who spend time thinking deeply of God’s invitation.

“Doing the will of the Father” is a recurring theme in our Gospel from Matthew. It is the gauge of our relationship with Jesus who said: “For whoever does the will of my heavenly Father is my brother, and sister, and mother.” It is the criterion by which people will be judged worthy or unworthy of entering the Kingdom of Heaven.

Brothers and sisters, sometimes we commit to something just to please someone. We do not think deeply of the matter put before us. We rely on the availability of possible excuses once we cannot make good of our promise. And oftentimes, we invent the excuses. God does not ask for our commitment just to be pleased.

Hence, God gives us time to discern for ourselves. History tells us that many of the prophets called by God did not decide immediately. They underwent processes of negating and running away from God. But in the end, they deeply thought of God’s offer and then they came back strong and dedicated. God, in love, waits for us always to return or turn to Him.

God bless us all.

Fr. Manny
St. Joseph will continue with the current Mass schedule (one Mass on Saturday at 4:30 p.m. and one Mass on Sunday at 9:30 a.m.). Returning to Mass is optional. The dispensation from Sunday obligation remains in effect. Anyone feeling sick should stay home and anyone who has been in close contact with COVID-19 individuals should self-quarantine for 14 days. We are allowed to be at 25% capacity, which is 206 people per Mass. Thanks to the many volunteers who have stepped up to sanitize the church after each gathering.

Please sanitize your hands upon entering. Social distancing always requires everyone to be six-feet apart in all directions. Please refrain from close discussions or gatherings of any kind in the vestibule or pews. Masks must be worn and can be removed once you are in the pew/seat. They are also to be removed when coming forward for Holy Communion. You may remain in the pew if you feel more comfortable and make a Spiritual Communion. The Precious Blood is not to be distributed to the faithful. The Sign of Peace is to be exchanged without physical contact. We will dispense with congregational singing until it is safe to do so. Hymnals – as well as bulletins and other items that may be handed out – will be removed. This will help remove a possible source of contagion, as well as ease the cleaning efforts before and after liturgies. The bulletin is posted on our website (www.stjoseph.dio.org) every Friday. Baskets will be out to collect your offertory envelopes. If you are interested in contributing online, safe and secure online giving is available on our website. Please use the Gift Central link.

Parishioners and guests should understand that they assume the risk of contracting COVID-19 anytime they enter a public space since such precautions do not eliminate the risk of infection.

Missions serve an important role in our Church. They provide for the needs of the most vulnerable in places where the local church cannot reach itself. Visit the Missionary Co-Op webpage at www.dio.org/missions/missionary-co-op-program.html. The page lists Missions that would have visited our diocese this summer, gives a link with information about a mission, and an opportunity for people to donate to a mission of your choice. Generous donations are critical to the operation of each mission. The current pandemic has affected us all, but even more so for those who were already afflicted by poverty.

The fruits of Heaven in our lives today

"The kingdom of God is given to those who produce its fruit." That's the moral of the story that Jesus gives us in next Sunday's Gospel reading. And what is this kingdom of God, given to us while we're still on earth? What are its fruits, which we produce during our earthly lives?

Anything we do in imitation of Christ is a fruit that has grown as a result of following Christ on our journey toward heaven. If we love as he loves, forgive as he forgives, minister to others, teach the truth, and heal the hurting, we are living in the kingdom of God now.

When I ask Catholics if they believe they're going to heaven, most feel very uncertain, either because they're afraid they might lose their salvation through some future grave sin, or because they're afraid it's not humble enough to answer with a firm "yes."

Granted, we do not imitate Christ perfectly. Most of us will need to spend time in Purgatory being purged of whatever is unheavenly about us, but when the purging is finished, we'll be fully alive in the wonderfulness of God. If we make it to Purgatory, of course we'll reach the glories of heaven. And if our desire to be Christ-like is genuine, then of course our sins will never be so "grave" that we turn completely away from Christ. Of course we'll gladly embrace him when he comes for us at the moment of our death.

Whatever you do because of Christ and out of love for Christ, this is evidence that you are living in and will eternally live in God's kingdom.

Questions for Personal Reflection:
What good fruits are you producing in your life now? List them; get out a pen and start writing them down. During the week, as you think of more good fruits, add those to the list.

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:
Look at the list you produced for the above question. How do these fruits give evidence of God's goodness within you? How do they provide the kingdom of God for the benefit of others? How do they assure you that you are truly a heaven-bound follower of Christ?

Peter’s Pence Collection
Be a Witness of Charity

The Christian exists to serve, not to be served.
—Pope Francis, Homily of the Mass at Santa Marta, April 26, 2018

September, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Peter’s Pence Collection is an opportunity for the Church around the world to stand in solidarity with Pope Francis. With roots in the early Church, through the Middle Ages and down to today, Peter’s Pence is a sign of unity with the Pope and a source of support for the activities of the Holy See, as well as for the Holy Father’s charitable relief efforts around the world. In September and October 2018 for example, violent earthquakes and a tsunami in Indonesia killed 1,500 and injured thousands more. On the island of Sulawesi, the Mount Soputan volcano erupted hours after the earthquake, further endangering people already affected by the first disaster.

Your generosity to the Peter’s Pence Collection facilitated much-needed support for victims of the Indonesian catastrophes. Pope Francis responded with a contribution of $100,000 to be distributed to those in areas most affected by the disaster, with a prayer that “the Lord comfort them and support those working in the rescue efforts” (Angelus, September 30, 2018). Your contributions support the works of the Holy See and help Pope Francis fulfill his prayer that the Church will reach out with acts of mercy.

Please join with our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe and prayerfully consider supporting this year’s collection as an act of mercy and charity. For more information about the collection, please visit http://www.peterspence.va/en.html.

Thank you, and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Thomas John Paprocki
